ClothEnvelopeStore.Com Launches - The First Online Store to Sell Cloth Envelopes

Cloth Envelopes – the hottest new trend in stationery – are now available online.

Now everyone can purchase the hottest trend in stationery, Invitations and envelopes – Cloth Envelopes. They're just like normal envelopes, except that they are made from %100 cotton – which actually makes them totally different.

Cloth Envelopes can be sent through the mail like normal envelopes, but since they are made of stiffened fabric, they're more beautiful and elegant, and they stand out in a stack of mail in a way that normal envelopes never will.

Micki Weigel, co-founder of ClothEnvelopeStore.Com, said: "People have been asking for a place to buy gorgeous Cloth Envelopes in a no-hassle, retail setting. After a few great showings at the National Stationery Show in New York City, we decided it was time and put together ClothEnvelopeStore.Com. It's a totally secure, point and click shopping environment."

Prior to the launch of ClothEnvelopeStore.Com, people could only buy Cloth Envelopes in bulk quantities of 1,000 or more. At ClothEnvelopeStore.Com you can buy individual envelopes, as well as boxed stationery sets. They come in four different sizes and four different colors.

Colors: Dark Red ; Royal Blue ; Forest Green ; American Flag

Sizes : A7 ; A2 ; Business-B10 ; Business Card Size

What Are Cloth Envelopes?

Cloth Envelopes are just like normal envelopes, except they're made of %100 cotton. They can be stamped and labeled like normal envelopes, so they can be sent through the mail, but they are much more beautiful - which make Cloth Envelopes perfect for personalized stationery, wedding invitations, birthday cards and even direct and promotional mailings. People you send one to can enjoy the letter before they even open it.

Being fabric, Cloth Envelopes are also environmentally friendly. They're also 100% made in America, with the fabric coming from New Jersey and the envelopes manufactured in Traverse City, Michigan.

They not only make your mailing stand out, they'll make your mailings a work of art.
